

I oppose any changes to the No call laws. If an individual registers and does not want their phone number called their wishes should be respected. Telemarketers should not be allowed in any way to contact people who do not want to be contacted. I consider it an invasion of privacy and my right to have MY wishes respected and not those of corporate America.